

Announcement and Schedule of Academic Senate Elections in Student Districts

Czech Technical University in Prague

The CTU Academic Senate elections are officially announced by the CTU Academic Senate in accordance with the Election Rules of the CTU AS. The main election commission determined this on August 31, 2023.

Resolution 7-14: AS CTU appoints the main electoral commission for the regular elections in student districts for the upcoming term, composed of Kateřina Pilná (Chairwoman of the Election Commission, student - FJFI), M.Sc. Veronika Vymětalová, Ph.D. (Member of the Election Commission, employee – FBMI), and Aneta Ševčenková (Member of the Election Commission, student - non-faculty members).

Resolution 7-15: AS CTU formally announces the regular elections to the Academic Senate of CTU in the student districts for the upcoming term.

The Chief Electoral Commission then set the voting period for all districts from November 13th to 26th. Following this, they communicated this deadline to the sub-committee established by the faculty AS and will continue to oversee their activities.

In the name of the Chief Electoral Commission
