* In the event that the decisive moment (reaching 26 years of age of the student for ground No. 3, or 3 years of age of the child for ground No. 4) occurs during the assessment period, the amount of the fee is calculated according to the number of days until the decisive moment.

 The amount of remission is directly proportional to the number of days studied in the bachelor's study in the Czech Republic according to the record in the register.

Explanatory notes:

a) An appeal against the assessment of a fee, together with a request for remission, reduction of the fee or deferral of payment, cannot be upheld, despite proof of the above-mentioned reasons, if the deadline for filing an appeal against the assessment of the fee has been missed. Missing an appeal may be waived if, within 15 days of the date on which the obstacle preventing the appeal from ceased to exist, an application for remission of the missed appeal is submitted together with the missed appeal and the student proves that the obstacle was serious reasons that occurred without his / her fault.

b) Students who have committed a disciplinary offense do not have the opportunity to apply for a fee reduction for reasons number 9 to 18.

c) In case of concurrence of several reasons, the reduction or waiver of the fee is assessed individually.
